City Budget For 1977 Discussed

The Murray Common Council's budget committee is going back to the drawing board to work out a 1977 city budget that will be more than $200,000 greater than the 1976 budget following action by the council at its regular meeting last night.

The council stipulated that next year's budget will contain pay raises in all city departments amounting to an average of six per cent and that operating expenses for the city departments would be raised no more than 10 per cent over 1976 figures.

Two different preliminary budgets were submitted to the council by budget committee chairman Melvin Henley, last night but neither proved to be exactly what the council had in mind.

The main difference in the two budgets was that budget "A" included a raise for city policemen of $600 per year, including fringe benefits, and that raises in other departments were held to six per cent, and budget "B" held raises and operating expense increases in all departments to six per cent.

Police committee chairman Ed Chrisman said that in some cases, the $600 annual raise for policemen would amount to eight per cent.

Several councilmen questioned the policy of giving policemen a greater percentage raise than workers in other city departments.

"Do you think it's right to give one department eight per cent and hold other departments to six per cent?" Dr. C. C. Lowry asked.

"The police department, as far as I'm concerned," Chrisman said, "is just a little different from the rest of the city departments. I think the police department operates under hazards that other departments are not under."

Chrisman said that he is convinced that the city should pay police personnel a good enough wage that the city can retain the policemen.

"We've lost one or two of our best patrolmen because they can make more elsewhere," he added.

Chrisman's motion that a budget including eight per cent pay raises for policemen and six per cent raises for other city departments was defeated on a 10-2 vote with council members Chrisman and Art Lee casting the only affirmative votes. Voting against the proposal were council members Loyd Arnold, Will R. Furches, Ruby Hale, Howard Koenen, Dr. C. C. Lowry, Woodrow Rickman, Tom Rushing, Buel Stalls, Jr. and Dave Willis.

The council then approved a motion which would allow operating expenses, not including salaries, to be increased up to 10 per cent in all city departments.

The budget submitted for the council's consideration last night totaled $1.36 million including $215,475.75 from federal revenue sharing funds. Henley said that budget was computed on a maximum six per cent increase for operating expenses and that the additional monies allocated would have to come from revenue sharing.

Henly did not make an estimate of how much additional revenue sharing money would have to be included in the 1977 budget.

The budget committee is scheduled to make a formal presentation of the 1977 budget at the council's next regular meeting on Dec. 23.

In other business, the council appointed Natural Gas System Supt. Tom Marshall to head the city's im-

Choruses To

Present Concert

At Calloway High

The Choruses of Calloway County High School, under the direction of Dan McDaniel, will present their annual Christmas Concert on Monday, December 13, at 7:30 p. m., in the Jeffery Gym.

Freshmen Chorus, Treble Chorus, Mixed Chorus, and Combined Chorus, will perform a program of old and new music of the Christmas season.

No admission will be charged for the concert and the public is invited to attend, a school spokesman said.

Two Injured In

One-Vehicle Mishap

Here On Thursday

A Murray man is listed in serious condition today at Lourdes Hospital in Paducah after suffering injuries in a one-vehicle accident Thursday afternoon.

Osley G. McClure, 318 North Seventh, was transferred to the intensive care unit of Lourdes Hospital after he was injured in an accident at 3:55 p. m. Thursday on Highway 121, according to Murray City Police and hospital officials.

Also injured was Gary McClure, age 13, who is listed in satisfactory condition today at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

Police said a truck driven by McClure was going north on Highway 121 when it went out of control and overturned in a ditch. No other vehicles were involved in the accident.

Janet Rowland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Rowland, was crowned as DECA Sweetheart of the Murray Area Vocational Center; Distributive Education Clubs of America for the 1976-77 school year by Diana Sliger, secretary for the Kentucky Association of DECA. Judges were Miss Sliger, Miss Bobbie Smith, Region I vice-president, and Janet Smith, Region I historian. Other contestants were Cindy Rudolph and Donna Adams. The Sweetheart will be a member of the Courtesy Corps at the State DECA Conference at Louisville and will be involved with many activities during the school year.

County Board Favors Football Program If Funds Can Be Raised

The Calloway County Board of Education has gone on record as favoring a football program in the county school system, providing necessary funds can be obtained.

The board took that action last night at its regular meeting. Much of the necessary funding would have to be raised locally, through fund raising projects and donations, according to Dr. Jack Rose, superintendent.

Rose said it would probably take about $50,000 to initiate the program, roughly half of which would have to be made up from local funds outside the board's budget.

Rose explained the proposed program which will be instituted if local interest is strong enough. The first year, a seventh and eighth grade program would be started at each elementary school, as well as a ninth and tenth grade B-team at the high school.

The second year, the seventh and eighth grade program would be maintained, and a ninth through eleventh grade B-team established. The third year, a varsity program would be begun.

The board appointed Dr. Rose, board member Walter Byars, and newly elected board member Billy Joe Kingins, who will take office in January, to determine the extent of interest in the program by working with the Calloway County Athletic Booster Club. If the interest is strong enough, the committee will look into methods of raising the necessary money, and make another recommendation to the board at its January meeting.

In other action, the board accepted a bid from Central School Supply for $48,000 on furnishings for the new library and cafeteria at Calloway High.

Payments were authorized to Crouch Construction Co. for $26,946, and to the architects for $419 on the construction project.

The board discussed the construction project at length, and expressed disappointment in the speed of the construction.

The board also heard a report from Florence-Hutchinson Consulting Engineers concerning the sewage treatment plants at the elementary schools. The plants, which conformed to specifications when installed, have since been rated below regulations because of changes in government standards.

The consultant told the board that it will cost about $75,000 total for the three plants to bring them in line with regulations. He also recommended that the board do as much work as possible with their own employees to hold down expenses.

No action was taken on that issue, but Rose was instructed to work with the firm and bring a recommendation back to the board.

Audits of the Central Office were presented and accepted at the meeting, and the board approved an application for the expansion of the Murray-Calloway Vocational School. A similar approval was given recently by the Murray Board of Education.

House Committee To Consider District Judgeships Measure

By MARIA BRADEN

Associated Press Writer

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—The Kentucky House Judiciary-Courts Committee was scheduled to consider a recommendation today to create 107 district judgeships, clearing the way for floor action on the proposal early next week.

The recommendation was made Thursday by a joint House-Senate committee and was a giant step toward implementing Kentucky's new lower court system.

Rep. Charles Wible, D-Owensboro, chairman of the House committee, said the number and location of the district judges "is and has been all along the most controversial question."

District courts will replace existing county and municipal courts Jan. 1, 1978, under a constitutional amendment approved by voters last year.

Wible said he is optimistic that when the House meets today it will not try to change what the joint committee recommended.

He said the committee will be asked to amend an administration bill proposing the creation of 112 district judgeships. The bill was reported out of the committee Wednesday with the agreement it would be returned to the

City Board Takes Bids On System

The Murray City School Board received bids on a sound system for the Murray High School gymnasium at last night's regular meeting.

After consideration of four bids, the board approved a motion to send all bids to Architect Pat Gingles for his consideration, and to request that Sound Specialists of Paducah install their alternate system on a trial basis at no cost to the board. The bid on that system was for $4,398.

The board voted to cancel the Dec. 23 meeting, but to remain available for a special called meeting in the event urgent business should arise.

Supt. Fred Schultz reported on the collection of local taxes, with a total of $55,102 collected through Nov. 29 in the general property tax fund, leaving about $48,000 to be collected.

Miss Susan Kaye Hall Is Married To Mr. Lawrence At Oak Grove

Mr. and Mrs. William Kenny Lawrence

Miss Susan Kaye Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie C. Hall of Benton Route Three, and William Kenny Lawrence, son of Mrs. Dorothy Lawrence of Murray and Bobby Lawrence of Hazel, were married in a fall candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p. m. at the Oak Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. James E. Garrett and the Rev. James V. Fulton in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The grandparents of the bride were the late Mr. and Mrs. John McElrath and the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall. Grandparents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Lawrence, Mrs. Mary Holsapple, and the late Leo McKinney.

Miss Kathy Kelly, pianist, organist, and soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Musical selections included "Somewhere My Love," "If," and "More." "You'll Never Walk Alone" was played as the mothers were escorted to their seats, and the traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and the recessional. During the ceremony "He Looked Beyond My Fault and Saw My Need" was played as the couple lighted the unity candle.

The vows were exchanged at the altar before a white arch entwined with greenery. A T-candelabrum holding fifteen candles was centered behind the arch. Pink and white gladioli were arranged with greenery and a flowing pink ribbon highlighted the lower stem of the candelabrum. Twin spiral candelabra, each holding fifteen candles, were decorated with greenery and placed on each side of the arch. The aisle was marked by hurricane lamps entwined with greenery.

Bride's Dress

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore an all candlelight formal gown of silk organza mist. The fitted bodice was complimented with a self ruffle v-yoke accented with Venice lace, a Victorian neckline, and full bishop sleeves ending with deep lace cuffs. The circular skirt was enhanced with tiered ruffles at the hemline that swept softly into a chapel train.

Sigma Department To Hold Meet Monday

"The Winters In New England" will be the theme of the program to be presented by Dr. and Mrs. John C. Winter at the open meeting of the Sigma Department of the Murray Woman's Club on Monday, December 13, at 7:30 p. m. at the club house.

Hostesses will be Mesdames A. B. Crass, Bailey Binford, Jerry Hopkins, Thomas McNeely, W. J. Pitman, and A. W. Simmons, Jr.

The flower girls wore mid-length dresses of candlelight cotton eyelet accented with lots of ruffles and lace, setting them off with matching bonnets. The girls carried small white wicker baskets with pink streamers filled with pink rose petals.

Barry Thomas of Murray was best man for the groom. Groomsmen were Myron Smith, Jeffrey Gordon, Ralph Dibble, and Wayne Holsapple, all of Murray.

Ushers were Joe Smith and Van Stubblefield of Murray. Phillip Park, cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer.

Mrs. Hall chose for her daughter's wedding a floor length gown of rust and brown knit with complimentary accessories.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Lawrence selected a floor-length light blue knit gown with chiffon sleeves.

Orchid corsages completed the ensembles of the mothers.

Reception Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Lenna Fulton, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Becky Gore.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie C. Hall, entertained the wedding party with a dinner held in the fellowship hall of the church on the evening preceding the wedding.

Approximately forty-five guests attended.

Odelle Vance Is Program Leader At Circle Meet

The Lottie Moon Group of the First Baptist Church Women met Monday, December 6, at 7:30 p. m. in the church parlor with Heloise Roberts as hostess and Frances Brown, leader, presiding.

The program was presented by Odelle Vance who used the theme of "Peace." Each member participated by reading assigned scriptures pertaining to peace.

The prayer calendar was read by Mildred Collier who also led the prayer for the missionaries having birthdays.

Nine members were in attendance. Also present were Thelma Warford, Pauline Waggener, Opal Holland, Mildred Colson, and Lemma Warren.

Don't Wait for Him To Leave His Wife

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1976 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with a man I work with. The problem is his wife. Every time he starts to tell her he wants a divorce, she gets herself pregnant and he decides that he can't go through with it.

This is the third time she's pulled that on him, Abby, and I am tired of waiting for him, but I can't break it off because I love him too much.

He is 34 and I'm 20, but I've been on my own since I was 15. We've been seeing each other for three years. I could get another man real fast, but I don't want anyone but him. I know he loves me because he's so jealous, he's threatened to mess up my face if I go out on him.

Do you think he'll ever leave his wife and marry me? Am I foolish to wait for him? What should I do?

ONE-MAN GIRL

DEAR GIRL: Wake up! No woman "gets herself pregnant." The man who claims he "loves" you is using you. No, I don't think he'll ever leave his wife and marry you. And yes, I think you're foolish to wait for him.

DEAR ABBY: A niece of mine was recently married, so I sent her a set of crystal and silver salt and pepper shakers for a wedding gift. It was not inexpensive for a woman of my means.

With her thank you note she enclosed a bill for half again the amount I had spent on her gift. It seems that this bride had returned my gift to the jewelry store from which it was purchased, and selected a more expensive set of salt and pepper shakers in its place.

This girl is not dumb. She's a college graduate. Not wanting to make a fuss, I paid the difference. What would you have done?

FLABBERGASTED IN FLORIDA

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: I'd have made a fuss and NOT paid the difference. Furthermore, the salesperson at the jewelry store should not have allowed the exchange without your approval.

DEAR ABBY: I have a beautiful adult daughter who is afraid to smile because she has yellowish teeth. She brushes her teeth regularly and visits her dentist often, but her teeth just naturally have that dingy look.

This is a big problem for her. She looks so pretty when she smiles, but she is so self-conscious about her teeth she won't let herself smile.

Is there a solution? How about caps like the movie stars wear?

MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: If there is a way to whiten naturally yellowish, well-cared for teeth, I've never heard of it, and neither has any dentist I've consulted. Covering all the front teeth with artificial caps would accomplish the desired effect, but it would necessitate partially destroying healthy teeth, which is not recommended by most dental experts.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box No. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

Music Department Chorus Presents Program For The Methodist Women

The Music Department Chorus of the Murray Woman's Club, with Jane Prince as pianist, presented the program at the general meeting of the First United Methodist Church Women held Tuesday, December 7, at 10:30 a.m.

Several selections were presented by the chorus pertaining to the holiday season.

The general meeting was held at ten a.m. with the Ruth Wilson Circle presenting the devotion featuring Mrs. Ann Fisher from the story, "The Widow's Mite."

The Executive Board met at nine a.m. in the church parlor with Mrs. Milton Jones, president, presiding.

A coffee was held in the social hall at 9:30 a.m. with the Alice Waters Circle as hostess for the morning. Fifty members were present for the general and program meeting.

Mrs. McKenzie Presents Program at PEO Meeting

The spirit of Christmas and the philanthropic services of Chapter M of P. E. O. were evident in the meeting Monday evening, December 6, in the home of Mrs. Henry McKenzie. Mrs. Lawrence Philpot assisted Mrs. McKenzie with the hostess duties.

Gifts from members, for children, were placed on the hearth around a Norfolk Island Pine which was decorated with varying sizes of snowflakes. The gifts will be given to the Department of Human Resources to be distributed as needed. Members also contributed individually to a money gift for Miss Peggy Liang who is now working toward a doctorate at the University of Tennessee.

Four annual twenty-five dollar gifts were favorably voted from chapter funds for Kentucky Cottey Scholarship Fund, International Peace Scholarship Fund, Educational Fund, and the Program of Continuing Education.

In the business meeting, Mrs. Olga Freeman, president, presided. The devotion was given by Mrs. A. H. Tisworth, chaplain pro tem, who read the Christmas story from Luke. Other officers present were Mrs. Paul Sturm, vice president; Mrs. A. C. LaFollette, guard; Mrs. Maurice Christopher, recording secretary; Mrs. Alfred Lindsey, Jr., corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Morgan Sisk, treasurer.

In the Christmas setting, consisting of lighted candles, greenery, statues and poinsettias, Mrs. McKenzie gave the program on "Christmas in Kentucky." After discussing early migrations to Kentucky and the various customs which the English, Scots and Scotch-Irish brought with them, Mrs. McKenzie concluded: "We are grateful for the rich traditions we have gathered from so many people who have made up our land. Through it all, let us remember, 'Tis His birthday we celebrate.'"

During the social hour coconut pie, punch and candied fruit delicacies were served from the dining table with Mrs. LaFollette presiding at the punch bowl.

Members present other than named were: Mesdames Harry M. Sparks, John C. Quermous, L. J. Horton, Larrie N. Clark, George S. Hart, H. L. Oakley, Harlan Hodges, Nate Beale and William S. Major.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Freeman in Hazel on January 3 at 7:30 p. m., with Mrs. Lewis Bossing assisting hostess.

MICROWAVE OVEN

Cooking with an Amana Radaranage Microwave Oven takes only 1/4 of the usual time. Roasts can be ready in half an hour. Casseroles in 15 or 20 minutes. Frozen vegetables ready to serve in 10 or 12.

- Automatic gourmet-defrost cycle lets you slow-cook or simmer.
- Defrosts meats and other frozen foods in minutes.
- Clean-up is quick, too, because you cook on glass, china... right on serving plates. Even on paper plates!
- Big enough to cook a 20 pound turkey.
- The food gets hot... but the stainless steel oven interior stays cool. Wipes clean in a jiffy, because splatters can't bake on.
- Two timers... up to 5 minutes... up to 30 minutes.
- The Radaranage oven saves energy. Uses 50 to 75% less electricity than a conventional range!

The Top 20 Stories Over Two Centuries

By The Associated Press

The American Revolution was voted the top story in two centuries of U.S. history in a poll of newspaper editors and radio and television news directors.

There were 273 responses to the Associated Press poll to select the Top 20 stories since 1776. The Revolution was listed on 245 ballots, with the great majority voting it first.

The drafting of the Constitution was voted the second most important story. The Civil War placed third.

The other Top 20 Stories were:

1. World War II.
2. The American moon landings.
3. Development of the atomic bomb.
4. The 1929 crash and the ensuing Great Depression.
5. Watergate and the resignation of Richard M. Nixon.
6. World War I.
7. Henry Ford, the Model T and the rise of the automobile.
8. Abraham Lincoln's assassination.
9. The development of television.
10. The assassination of President Kennedy.
11. Thomas Edison and the electrification of the nation.
12. Vietnam.
13. Franklin Roosevelt's New Deal.
14. The changing role of women.
15. The Wright brothers and the growth of aviation.
16. The Louisiana Purchase.
17. The 1954 Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in the schools.

HEARTLINE

HEARTLINE is a service for senior citizens of all ages. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems — fast. If you have a question or a problem not answered in these columns, write HEARTLINE, 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 43081. Senior citizens will receive prompt replies, but you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The most useful replies will be printed in this column.

HEARTLINE: I am a 66-year-old senior citizen and I have an allergy to penicillin. I am very worried that if I have an accident someone may give penicillin to me by mistake. Do you have any suggestions? P.S.

ANSWER: This is a very serious problem that about 40 million other Americans have, and in many cases, the administration of an improper drug could be fatal. Medic Alert Foundation is attempting to prevent such tragedies through an international medical identification program.

A person who has a hidden medical problem can send for a Medic Alert emblem. This is worn with a chain around the neck or wrist. The emblem has the person's medical problem, I.D. number and the foundation's hotline number. This number can be called collect 24 hours a day from any place in the world.

For more information, write to the Medic Alert Foundation, P.O. Box 1009, Turlock, Calif. 95380.

HEARTLINE: My husband was receiving a V.A. retirement check for about three years. He passed away Oct. 23, 1976. Am I entitled to cash his V.A. check that came on Dec. 17, L.O.

ANSWER: No. The check should be returned. To establish entitlement, the veteran must be alive for the complete month. You may be entitled to death benefits and any accrued amount due to your deceased husband.

HEARTLINE: My husband and I are thinking of buying a condominium. We have just retired and we would like a place where we do not have to do a lot of upkeep. We have read much about the pitfalls of buying a condominium and this frightens us. Do you have any advice?

ANSWER: Heartline has had many questions about this so we have put together a pamphlet to help people who desire to purchase a condominium. To receive this free pamphlet write to Heartline Condominium, 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 43081. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Letter To The Editor

Carter PTA Objects To TV Programs

(The following is a copy of the letter sent to the three networks by the Carter PTA.)

Dear President of: NBC, CBS, and ABC,

Our local chapter of the P. T. A. fully supports the National P. T. A. campaign against violence on tv. We, too, are concerned with the effects this can (and may be) having on our children.

Many of our members have stated that more and more they turn the tv off with disgust. A constant diet of shooting, killing, bad language, and disrespect cannot be good for the youth of Murray, Kentucky, or anywhere else.

Many polls say that the American public wants these violent programs. We say you are not getting the results from the mainstream of our country. The P. T. A. represents vitally concerned people: our children are forming their morals. It is hard to teach one way of life when they see the opposite night after night on television.

Please listen to a plea from mothers, fathers, grandparents, and teachers... end the violence on tv and give us some good wholesome and educational programs.

Sincerely, Carter Elementary School P. T. A., Mary Ann Carter, president; Sue Witherington, vice-president; Ernestine Garland, secretary; Joretta Randolph, treasurer.

THE COMING ANTICIPATED

Luke 1:39-55

Upon being informed by the angel, Gabriel, that God had chosen her as the medium of bringing the Saviour into the world, Mary went to visit her cousin, Elizabeth, who resided in the hill country of Judea. Upon her arrival Mary greeted Elizabeth, who responded by joyously expressing her congratulations to Mary because of her believing the promise of God through the angel, and then assured her of her utmost confidence that God's promise would be fulfilled. Filled with the Holy Spirit, Elizabeth was able to recognize the important role that Mary was to have in God's will. In response to Elizabeth's meaningful greeting, Mary broke forth in the words of this inspired song, usually called "the Magnificat," which gives us a marvelous insight into her wonderful character.

The Character of Mary's Song

1. It was worshipful.
2. It was confessional.

Instead of being filled with pride because she had been favored so highly, Mary expressed her deep gratitude to God for the grace and goodness which He had bestowed upon her. She said: "My soul doth magnify the Lord... for he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden." She expressed her appreciation for the wonderful blessing of salvation which she had received.

10 Years Ago

Deaths reported include Eddie Bruce (Buster) Evans, age 51.

3. It was prophetic.

Mary realized that the great promise that God had made to Abraham, which embraced all the nations, was culminating through her. Knowing that the birth of the Saviour would be a fulfillment of many of the Old Testament prophecies, Mary treated those promises as if they were fulfilled already.

The Content of Mary's Song

1. Praise for salvation.
2. Praise for the divine character.

Mary thanked God and praised Him for salvation, both for herself and for others. She needed the Saviour just as every child of the human race does. Fully conscious of her need in this regard she said: "My spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour." She thoroughly magnified the Lord, and thereby repudiated any worship of herself.

Mary praised God for His almighty power, absolute holiness, and abundant mercy. His abundant mercy was not limited to Mary, but it is "on all them that fear him from generation to generation."

3. Praise for what the Saviour would accomplish.

Mary gave the assurance that the Saviour would exalt those who turn from their sins and exercise faith in Him. He would also send away empty those who might arrogate importance to themselves because of the things which they had received, all of which had come from His own bountiful hand.

4. Praise for the divine faithfulness.

God's faithfulness is shown in many ways, but especially in the manner by which He keeps all of His promises. His faithfulness in keeping all of His glorious promises to us is a sufficient reason for our loving, praising, and obeying Him.

Conclusion

A careful analysis of Mary's song indicates the fact that she was an earnest, diligent, and believing student of the Old Testament, and rejoiced in the privilege of expressing her genuine gratitude and praise for God's goodness and graciousness.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

By Lucrece Beale

Synopsis: The Harp Witch tells Billy he can slay Goko the giant if he brings her the Rosanna Ruby to set in a magic necklace.

CHAPTER SEVEN THREE ISLANDS

The Harp Witch told Santa there was an island where diamonds and amethysts and pearls and opals grew on trees.

"Among the trees," said the witch, "there is a grove of rubies and here the Rosanna Ruby is to be found. It is the fairest stone of all. If you can pluck it you need have no fear of Goko. I shall put the stone in a magic necklace that will tighten around his throat and he will be helpless."

Santa and Billy rushed off with Theodore the turtle in search of the jewel. The sea was rough. The turtle's upside down shell rocked and bobbed in the waves. Water splashed over the sides. The wind beat the sail and the boom swung back and forth knocking them all to the bottom of the wobbly little boat.

At last Theodore called out, "There is an island straight ahead!"

Thank goodness, thought Billy. He was feeling seasick. He had already had enough sea voyage to last him all his life. But when they came ashore they found this was not the Jewel Island after all.

A round checked brownie was sitting on the beach beating on a child's drum. He told them this was the Island of Lost Toys. "Have you lost a toy?" he asked Billy.

"Oh, yes," said Billy. "I've lost lots of toys! A whistle and a red and blue rubber ball and a baseball bat and a little tin soldier and—"

"They are all here," said the brownie. He pointed to a mountain of balls and toy trucks and dolls and pocket knives and kites and tops and even pogo sticks. They were all lost toys, he explained. "Every toy that is lost is brought to this island by the Play Brownies."

The kangaroo sailor pointed to the Isle of Jewels.

"What happens to them then?" asked Santa.

"Once a year the brownies take the toys back to the world and hide them in strange places for children to come upon unexpectedly."

"I once found my missing roller skate behind the kitchen stove!" exclaimed Billy.

"I expect the brownies put it there," smiled the brownie.

"Now why don't you look for your other missing toys here?"

Billy was already shuffling through a pile of tin soldiers but Santa said they must hurry on their way.

They piled back in their rocky boat and rocked off. Twice more they came ashore and twice more they found they had not yet come to the Isle of Jewels.

The first place was called Candy Island. Long ago a candy machine on the island lost a screw. Caramels and marshmal-warning, and promise of a fine, if Fido brings her home again.

Let's Stay Well

Fatal Accidents In Urban Children

By F.J.L. Blasigame, M.D.

Injuries to children remain one of the leading causes of death among the young, in spite of improved medical care.

At a recent meeting of the American Academy of Pediatrics, F.T. Velcek, M.D., and associates reported on 729 trauma deaths which occurred over a five-year period in an urban setting.

Unfortunately, almost 50 per cent of the injured victims died before they received any medical care. The authors pointed out that, if improvement in trauma mortality among such young persons is to be improved, it can be done only by reducing the number of cases who are dead on arrival at the emergency rooms.

In the hope of learning more of the characteristics of these injuries so that prevention might be more effective, the authors analyzed the most common causes of injuries with the following results:

— Vehicular Accidents: About 40 per cent of these cases were dead on arrival at emergency rooms. Eighty-seven per cent of the children killed were pedestrians, with a seasonal peak in June. Most of the children involved were black males with an average age of 66 years.

— Fire: Mostly indigent children were killed, average age 49 years. Most accidents occurred during the winter. Asphyxiation or flame burns accounted for deaths. Faulty heating equipment was usually related to the cause. Sixty-three per cent were dead on arrival.

— Fall: Death due to fall was predominantly a summer injury and was related to two groups: (1) the active male (5 to 10 years old) climbing fire escapes or roofs, and (2) the toddler falling out of windows.

— Public Transportation: The usual victim was a school age child falling a ride on the back of a bus and falling.

The authors call for an all-out effort of education to reduce exposure and to lessen the number of victims through prevention. Day care centers, schools, welfare agencies, churches and voluntary health groups need to assume more responsibilities in education. Mass media can be helpful in alerting families, and others of the principal sources of danger in the hope of lessening the toll of premature deaths and disabilities from preventable injuries.

A The spleen is located in the upper left side of the abdomen

Q Ms. AF asks whether women tolerate cigarette smoking as well as men.

A In a study conducted in Erie County, Pa., on a moderate-size population sample showed that the average life span of a female smoker was 61 years, compared with 64 years for a male smoker. Based on this study, the reason that women live longer than men appears to be that far more men than women smoke tobacco. Male nonsmokers in the group lived to 76 years as compared to 77 years for female nonsmokers.

SISTERS PLAYING DEFENSE—Penny Overbey (12) and Renee Overbey, who is behind Jan Shelton (14) of Mayfield, team up for some sisterly defense. Holding the ball is point guard Kim Ray of the Cardinals. Mayfield took a 49-38 win to make both teams 2-2 for the season.

Laker Girls Have Cold Night Shooting, Upset By Mayfield

By MIKE BRANDON
Lester & Times Sports Editor
Frustration is when on a cold winter night, you suddenly discover you have no more firewood left.

The Calloway County girls' basketball team was coasting along with a 22-13 lead over host Mayfield early in the second quarter Thursday night.

Suddenly, the Laker girls ran out of firewood. They were shutout for the next five minutes. And in the first five minutes of the third period, the Laker girls could score only two points.

As a result, Mayfield pulled off a 49-38 upset victory over the Lakers.

What happened to the Lakers?

To begin with, the Lakers could hit absolutely nothing from the field. As a team, they connected on a frigid mark of .227 on 15 of 66 shooting.

The Laker girls were plagued with turnovers, fouls and generally sloppy play.

Several times in the game, the Laker girls tried to fast-break when there was no opportunity. It seemed the Lakers over-reacted both on offense and defense.

But the biggest difference in the game was rebounding. The Laker girls, when they needed it the most, could not get the rebounding. Mayfield was able to get two and three shots at the basket on occasions while late in the game, the Lakers could manage only one shot.

"We got beat 56-38 at Fancy Farm and it was all because we didn't block out on the boards," said Mayfield coach Tom Largent.

"In the second quarter of the game against Fancy Farm, we only scored two points."

"We've worked hard in practice in an effort to learn how to block out on the boards," Largent added.

It was a rather slow first quarter. Calloway did not get their first lead until 3:56 left in the period when Mina Todd hit a short jumper to put the Lakers on top 6-5.

By the end of the period, the Laker girls held a 13-9 lead.

With 6:38 left in the half, sophomore guard Rose Ross scored on a fastbreak to make it an 18-13 Laker lead. Junior center Felicia Pinner followed with a bucket and senior forward Marilyn McKenzie hit on a rebound and with 5:44 left in the half, Calloway held a 22-13 lead and seemed ready to explode.

The Laker girls did not score again until when with 45 seconds left in the half, Ross hit from 10 feet and that snapped a 22-22 tie and gave the Lakers a two-point edge at halftime.

Jan Shelton scored with 5:12 left in the third period to tie the game at 24 apiece. Mayfield then scored the next six points to go up 30-24 before Ross hit two free throws with 3:01 left to score Calloway's first points of the second half.

The Lakers fought back and finally tied the score with 41 seconds left when Ross hit a free throw, making 32 apiece going into the final eight-minute period.

The Lakers stayed close and trailed only 42-38 with less than three minutes left.

But the Lakers were not able to score again while the Cardinals tacked on the final seven points of the game to push the margin up to 11.

Ross fired in a game-high 18 points before fouling out in the final quarter. She was the only Laker in twin figures.

For Mayfield, Shelton had 14 points while Terry Humes had 13 as did Barbara Pryor. Kim Ray, the Cardinals' outstanding point guard, added eight points.

"We got a real good effort out of Pryor early in the game and late in the game," Coach Largent said.

Calloway played a zone defense during the game while Mayfield never played the zone. Largent felt his club's defense was the key for the win.

"We played a person-to-person defense for the whole game. It puts you in between the person you are guarding and the basket, thus you are in better rebounding position," Largent said.

Mayfield had 23 turnovers in the game while the Lakers committed 20 floor errors.

"We couldn't hit anything. We played a very sloppy game," Laker coach Marianne Davis said.

"We just could never establish any momentum," Davis added.

Mayfield and Calloway are both 2-2 on the season.

In the freshman boys' game, Mayfield came away from a 19-18 half-time lead to grab a 44-32 win over the Lakers.

The frosh Lakers are now 1-2 for the season.

The Laker girls will not play again until next Friday when they meet Hickman County in the Laker Invitational Christmas Tournament.

Standing On The Firing Line

Small And Tall To Battle Tonight

Jeffrey Gymnasium will be the land of the giants tonight when a tall and talented Mayfield team invades for a contest with Calloway County.

The Lakers will carry a 4-3 record into the game while Mayfield is 1-1. The Cardinals humiliated Wingo then lost last Saturday by 14 at Tilghman.

Sophomore David Youngblood, who is 6-7½, will start at center with 6-5 Don Hubbard at forward along with 6-2 Jeff Hill. The Cardinal guards will be 6-3 Joey Shelton and 6-1 Mark Buck. The latter four are all juniors.

Tilghman beat Mayfield inside. Guards Delbert Shum-pert and Lemuel Sutton combined for 44 points and 16 rebounds, which simply means Tilghman tried driving to the middle on the Cardinals.

Needless to say, Mayfield will have a tremendous size advantage as the tallest Laker, Mike Wells, is only 6-2½.

Wells is scoring at a 21.3 clip while senior guard Tommy Futrell is averaging 17.3, junior forward Jimmy Lamb 14.4 and junior guard Randy McCallon 9.0.

The Lakers lost their last outing, falling 79-62 at Marshall County Tuesday. At halftime, the Lakers held a five-point lead.

"We made three turnovers early in the third quarter and they converted them into points. All of a sudden, we found ourselves down by seven points and it's tough to play catch-up ball on the road," Laker Coach Robert Slone said.

Actually, the game was much closer than the 17-point final margin.

"We were really pleased with our rebounding. I think they had something like one or two more rebounds than we did. Lamb had 16 rebounds.

"We really haven't had that much time to think about preparing for Mayfield," Slone said.

"It's hard to prepare yourself when you are so small and have to defend people who are 6-7½ and 6-5.

"I'm not sure where to try applying pressure out front to keep them from getting the ball inside or whether to try to stop them inside. I'm just not sure what to do," added Slone.

Calloway has a tradition of playing tough against Mayfield. They must go one step above tradition tonight. They must play exceptionally tough.

The basketball predictions now stand at 18-8 on the season.

For Murray High fans, you'll have to wait until Tuesday to see how the game is going to go at Symsonia. Since I've hit the last two by the exact margin, I'm sure the folks at Symsonia will be watching to see the outcome of the game. Maybe I'll just pick the Tigers by 10 points and they can skip the game and take my word for it.

Jokes aside, it's time for the weekly effort which will probably be a bad one because there are some tough games to call.

MAYFIELD at Calloway by 11—The Lakers must have a brilliant night to win. More often than not, brilliant nights don't come early in the season. Mike Wells and Jimmy Lamb must stay out of foul trouble. If either gets three fouls early, the game could be a cakewalk for Mayfield.

Symsonia at LOWES by three—This is the game of the year for the folks in Graves County. The gym will be packed solidly by six o'clock.

Lowes is a big club. However, they won by only three last week over Carlisle County. This game could give an indication of what to expect for Tuesday's battle between Murray and Symsonia. If Lowes wins, look for the Tigers to be a favorite Tuesday. If Symsonia should beat Lowes by 10 points or more, then look for Symsonia to be a favorite next Tuesday against the Tigers.

Hickman County at TILGHMAN by 17—This one could tell us a lot about the Laker Invitational. The Lakers have already beaten Hickman County, Murray has romped Tilghman. With the speed Tilghman has, it will be darned near impossible for Hickman County to play slow-down ball.

MARSHALL COUNTY at Fulton County by 17—Win number three for former MSU graduate assistant Rick Leeper. Leeper moves into the big time next Tuesday when his Marshals host Mayfield.

Health at FULTON CITY by two—Anybody's game, two terribly weak clubs.

Reidland at ST. MARY by 19—St. Mary isn't that strong, Reidland is down.

Palmerston at CUBA—The winner of this game should get a four-leaf clover and a horseshoe while the loser gets an evening with Don Rickles. Two of the weakest teams to be found. They should bring Cairo Camelot and Pleasant Valley Rest Home into this one for a tourney.

Saturday: Carlisle County at WARREN CENTRAL by six and I'll admit I know nothing about Warren Central; and Calloway at BALLARD MEMORIAL by nine. The Bombers are tough to beat at home, previously undefeated Lone Oak discovered that Tuesday.

Nuggets' Home Court Helps Beat Cavaliers

DENVER (AP) — Forward Paul Silas of the Denver Nuggets says that playing on a home court makes a difference. And that difference was a big reason why the Nuggets beat the Cleveland Cavaliers 104-94 Thursday night in a National Basketball Association game.

"If we had played in Cleveland the way we played tonight, we would have won," Silas said, referring to Denver's 99-93 loss to the Cavs on Dec. 2.

"If they played tonight the way they played in Cleveland, they would have beat us. The home court does make a difference," he said.

For Cleveland, the loss was its fourth straight and ended a five-game road trip. The Cavs are 16-8, second in the Central Division.

Denver broke away from a 50-46 halftime edge and led by 11 points going into the final quarter. Center Dan Issel scored eight points during the decisive third period as Denver hit nine of 13 free throws, while the Cavaliers never went to the foul line.

Cleveland closed within 100-94 on John Lambert's two free throws with 1:29 remaining, but Denver clinched the victory with two foul shots by Ted McClain and a stuff shot by Thompson.

Hawks 102, Kings 100
Lou Hudson had the hot hand for Atlanta, tossing in 24 points in the third quarter and setting a record for Kemper Arena in Kansas City. But it was his two free throws with 38 seconds remaining that gave Atlanta the victory.

"In the third quarter, I just had that feel for the ball," said Hudson who hit 12 of 13 shots in the third period on his way to a 34-point game.

Scott Wedman, who scored a career-high 38 points, and Brian Taylor scored Kansas City's final seven points, tying the score before Hudson's clutch foul shots.

Pittsburgh Could Strike Oil In Houston In Saturday NFL Game

By BRUCE LOWITT
AP Sports Writer

You remember the Pittsburgh Steelers, don't you ... the team everyone was burying at the beginning of the season when it lost four of its first five games.

Well, they are so deep, they are about to strike oil — Houston oil, that is. On Saturday, it could all come together.

That 1-4 start this National Football League season had people wondering. Obviously something was wrong with the two-time Super Bowl champions.

Whatever it was, it is gone. There has not been a better team since then. The Steelers have reeled off eight straight victories and allowed a minuscule 28 points in those games, four of them shutouts.

And after trailing Cincinnati virtually all season, they stand one victory away from killing the Bengals' and longshot Cleveland's hopes of winning the American Football Conference Central title.

Cincinnati is at the New York Jets and Cleveland is at Kansas City Sunday. If the Steelers lose Saturday, the Sunday games would be important since Cincinnati could be the division champion with a victory or, if the Bengals lose, too, the Browns would be the divisional champions. But if Pittsburgh wins, the Browns and Bengals will be just playing out a season of frustration.

In Saturday's other action, it will be Minnesota at Miami and Los Angeles at Detroit. In Sunday's other games, it will be St. Louis at the New York Giants and Washington at Dallas with the Cards and Redskins fighting for the National Football Conference wild card playoff berth; Buffalo at Baltimore and New England at Tampa Bay, with the Colts and Patriots fighting for the AFC East title and the loser winding up with the conference wild card spot; Seattle at Philadelphia, Green Bay at Atlanta, Denver at Chicago, San Francisco at New Orleans and San Diego at Oakland.

The one team not at 9-4 in the AFC Central Division is Houston, 5-8. "If they can't beat us and prove they should be in the playoffs, then they don't deserve it," Oilers Coach Bum Phillips said of the Steelers.

Three weeks ago, Pittsburgh beat Houston 32-16, allowing the only two touchdowns in its eight-game winning streak. "They look like the bears when they get out at the circus," Phillips said. "They scatter everybody."

The Bengals are rated heavy favorites to beat the 3-10 Jets — but they are running into an emotionally charged team. Lou Holtz resigned as head coach Thursday and New York, under Mike Holovak, will be trying to avoid a repeat of the 3-11 finish in 1975, the club's worst ever. Added to that is the possibility that it will be Joe Namath's last game as the Jets' quarterback.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR SATURDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1976

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth sign.

ARIES

(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20) It's up to you to make some of the overtures necessary to bring about congeniality and helpful agreements. Start right off with vim and self-confidence.

TAURUS

(Apr. 21 to May 21) Some complicated situations indicated. Be sure you have all the facts before making decisions. Travel and outdoor interests favored.

GEMINI

(May 22 to June 21) Your "feelings," now are far more reliable than advice from so-called experts. Never underestimate your truly remarkable intuition.

CANCER

(June 22 to July 23) Some difficulties possible, but you can avoid most if you will avoid excitable folks who leave you emotionally drained. Spend leisure time pursuing a hobby that's fun.

LEO

(July 24 to Aug. 23) Wait for the proper signal before engaging in new activities. And, where more research is needed, get busy on it. Be self-reliant, persevering.

VIRGO

(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Purpose and wisdom of method stand out as day's needs. Dispose of minor items promptly but deftly. New opportunities indicated.

LIBRA

(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) Tighten reins a bit to observe with more surety and ease where you are headed. Nothing should sway you from high principles, but do avoid stubbornness.

SCORPIO

(Oct. 24 to Nov. 22) Watch trends and join forces with those who have a stake in the common welfare. Your priceless energy can be of great help.

SAGITTARIUS

(Nov. 23 to Dec. 21) A fine day! You may be the recipient of special favors, tokens of good will or other unexpected benefits.

CAPRICORN

(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Stars warn against vacillating, changing plans or projects before they have been given a fair chance to prove themselves. Steady does it!

AQUARIUS

(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) The odds are against you right now, so it's no time to tackle the opposition. Postpone action until Tuesday when you'll have a better chance.

PISCES

(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Be cautious in making directives and don't take others' feelings for granted. Alertness and flexibility of thought will help you to safer conclusions.

YOU BORN TODAY have a great love for your fellowman, and your tolerance and generosity are outstanding. In this connection, however, you should use care in selecting the recipients of your altruism, since there are many who would take advantage of your good nature. But to the more morally inclined, you are a constant source of inspiration and example — which is why you would make an excellent teacher or preacher. Extremely versatile, however, you could succeed in almost any other field of your choice — especially in business leadership, the law, music, journalism or architecture. Birthdate of Hector Berlioz, Fr. composer.

AN INVESTMENT IN YOUR FUTURE

...Attend ChurchFirst Steps

Have you ever watched a baby learning to walk? His first steps are hesitant, he often falls, but slowly, he gains more confidence, and, soon, his mother can no longer keep up with him.

First steps of spiritual growth are like this, too. Our faith, at first, is quite uncertain, but as we become more certain of God's love, we gain more confidence. Soon our faith plays a part in every decision we make. Faith in God becomes the guiding principle of our whole life.

You can help others to take their first steps toward God. Help them to understand that God can make a difference in their lives, too. Invite a friend to visit your church or synagogue with you. This could well be their first step toward God.

Burley Average Down Thursday

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The average price per hundredweight plunged 39

cents from the previous day's total and volume fell by more than 4 million pounds at Kentucky burley markets Thursday, but higher figures could be in evidence again Monday.

A total of 27 Kentucky markets reported sales of 15,935,383 pounds of leaf at an average price of $115.76. On Wednesday, 28 markets sold 20,093,715 pounds at an average $116.15.

A Tobacco Market News spokesman was at a loss to explain the sharp one-day drop in average and volume. "It could be a lot of resales and it could be a lower grade of tobacco," the spokesman said. "It could be a combination of things."

The spokesman said he expects both figures to climb when the final full week of pre-Christmas sales begins Monday. By that time, farmers who used last week's wet weather to strip tobacco should have the crop ready for market.

Lexington reported a high volume of 1,779,370 pounds, a sharp drop from that market's Wednesday total of 2,893,563 pounds. Glasgow, a million seller on Wednesday, fell to 821,936 pounds on Thursday and Shelbyville dropped almost 100,000 pounds to 1,184,742 pounds.

Covington fell by some 60,000 pounds to 1,421,632 pounds, but the average price jumped 12 cents to $117.06.

The highest average price of the day was recorded at Cynthiana, where 415,500 pounds brought an average $117.92 per hundredweight.

Four other markets reported averages in excess of $117.

At the other end of the spectrum, Owensboro averaged just $111.96 on the sale of 672,057 pounds, and Covington averaged $112.32 on sales of 94,136.

Despite the low Thursday figures, the totals for 12 sessions passed the 200 million pound mark, climbing to 208,884,367. The average price slipped nine cents to $116.85.

BUYING A LOT

Buying land involves risks. Contrary to popular belief, land is not a fail-safe investment. The Florida land boom of the mid-20's was not the only time people lost money speculating in land. It happens every day. Here are some guidelines which may help in reducing the risk factor.
Generally speaking, the more you pay for a lot, the surer you are of getting your money's worth. If you pay a amount of dollars for a developed lot with utility lines already in, you may be better off than buying the same lot for one-half the amount before the roads and utilities are built out to it. Development costs vary, but almost anywhere they are rising every year.

If you are not a land expert, the most preferred method of buying a lot is to have a REALTOR do your negotiating. His most valuable asset is his knowledge of property values. You are far better off with him on your side.

Consulting with people about their real estate needs is our specialty. Drop by Purdom & Thurman on the court square or call Pat Mobley 753-4451 or 753-8958. We're here to help!

Funeral services for Mrs. Ivan Rudolph are being held today at two p. m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with the Rev. Dr. Bill Whittaker officiating and Gus Robertson, Jr., as soloist.

Serving as pallbearers are Bobby McDowell, David Poyner, Garvin Wilson, Kay Rudolph, Bill Rudolph, and Elmer Sholar. Burial will be in the Murray City Cemetery.

Mrs. Rudolph, age 67, died Wednesday at five a. m. at her home at 1662 Ryan Avenue, Murray. She was the former Christine Smith and was married August 1, 1926 to Ivan Rudolph, who survives. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

The funeral for Edward L. Crooks of Hamlin will be held Monday at ten a. m. at Knox, Ind., with burial to follow in the Crown Hill Cemetery there with the Harry Price Funeral Home there in charge of the arrangements.

In charge of the local arrangements was the Blalock-Coleman Funeral Home.

Mr. Crooks, age 84, died Wednesday at 11:50 p. m. at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. He was a retired railroad switchman and had been residing here for the past 2½ years.

Survivors are his son, Darrell Crooks, Hamlin; his daughter, Mrs. Robert (Gail) Daniels, Park Forrest, Ill.; sister, Miss Marie Crooks, and brother, Freddy Crooks, Minneapolis, Minn.; three grandchildren.

Hardin Seniors Will Sponsor Breakfast

The monthly country ham breakfast will be held Saturday, December 11, by the Hardin Senior Citizens at the Hardin Center.

Serving will be from six to ten a. m. of country ham with all the trimmings. The cost will be $2.50 each, a center spokesman said.

Two concerts will be given. The first at 8:45 a. m. will be presented to students of the Calloway County Elementary Schools at East, North, and Southwest, and fifth and sixth grades at Murray Middle School. The ten a. m. concert will be presented to students of Carter and Robertson Elementary Schools, Headstart, Memorial Baptist Kindergarten, and Early Childhood Center Kindergarten.

Mrs. John Thompson, chairman, extends an invitation to all adults who had planned to hear the chorus at the library on December 9 but was cancelled due to the Van Cliburn concert by the Murray Civic Music Association. Ample seating will be available.

Rev. Timberlake To Speak, Mt. Horeb

The Rev. C. E. Timberlake, pastor of the St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker at the Mt. Horeb Free Will Baptist Church on Sunday, December 12, at three p. m. The public is invited, according to the Rev. Drew, pastor of the church.

Maverick New York Mayor Arrested For Breaking Into Chief's Office

UTICA, N.Y. (AP) — Maverick Mayor Edward A. Hanna, who once removed the door to his office to promote "open government," didn't take kindly to being arrested for picking the lock of the police chief's office door. He suspended the chief and four officers.

The episode — which grew out of a dispute over access to gun permit records — was the latest in a three-year running battle between the flamboyant Hanna and the government, business circles and press in this upstate New York city.

"I was arrested tonight and I thought you might like the story," he said Thursday in a telephone call to The Associated Press in Albany.

Speaking nonstop and with intensity, the raspy-voiced Hanna said he wanted to inspect gun permit records after a prospective security guard complained that he was told it would take six months to a year to get a permit.

"This was the only battlefield that even I was hesitant to jump into," he said. "I haven't been courageous enough to really fight them yet... but I am now."

Concerts For Children To Be Tuesday

Another in the series of Children's Concerts, sponsored by the Music Department of the Murray Woman's Club, will be held on Tuesday, December 14, at Lovett Auditorium, Murray State University, featuring the A Cappella Chorus of Murray, directed by Prof. Robert Baar.

Two concerts will be given. The first at 8:45 a. m. will be presented to students of the Calloway County Elementary Schools at East, North, and Southwest, and fifth and sixth grades at Murray Middle School. The ten a. m. concert will be presented to students of Carter and Robertson Elementary Schools, Headstart, Memorial Baptist Kindergarten, and Early Childhood Center Kindergarten.

Mrs. John Thompson, chairman, extends an invitation to all adults who had planned to hear the chorus at the library on December 9 but was cancelled due to the Van Cliburn concert by the Murray Civic Music Association. Ample seating will be available.

Rev. Timberlake To Speak, Mt. Horeb

The Rev. C. E. Timberlake, pastor of the St. John's Missionary Baptist Church, will be the guest speaker at the Mt. Horeb Free Will Baptist Church on Sunday, December 12, at three p. m. The public is invited, according to the Rev. Drew, pastor of the church.

Services Planned For Sunday At Sinking Spring

Regular worship services will be held at the Sinking Spring Baptist Church on Sunday, December 12, at eleven a. m. and 6:45 p. m. with the pastor, the Rev. Lawson Williamson, to speak at both services.

The Adult Choir, directed by Tommy Scott with Mrs. Scott at the piano and Mrs. Jim Neale at the organ, will sing "Joy To The World" and "How Great Thou Art" at the morning services.

L. D. Warren, deacon of the week, will assist in the morning worship hour.

The Youth will meet at five p. m. for choir practice and will sing in the evening service.

Volunteer nursery workers will be Mrs. Judy Smotherman, Mrs. Pat Dalton, and Mrs. Wanda Walker.

Sunday School will be at ten a. m., Church Training at six p. m., and Adult Choir practice for the Cantata at 7:30 p. m.

On Wednesday, December 15, at seven p. m. a mission study of the book, "Stronger Than Mushrooms," will be taught by Mrs. Larry Harrison. This will be for all age groups and the public is invited to attend, a church spokesman said.

This is the strongest, most controlled, self-serving police department in the entire country."

Hanna and locksmith Donald Zuilloux were arrested and arraigned in city court on charges of third-degree criminal trespass. Both were released on their own recognizance and ordered to appear Dec. 16 for another hearing.

The mayor said he decided to inspect the records after Chief Benny Rotundo refused to provide them.

act on the legislation Tuesday. He said he does not think the action of either committee will differ significantly from the joint committee recommendation.

The recommendation for 107 judges includes 25 for Jefferson County, six for Fayette. Four for Kenton and three each for Campbell and Daviess.

Three of the seven four-county districts were allocated two judges, while the remaining four four-county districts received one judge each.

The joint legislative committee arrived at its recommendation by going over population, weighted caseload and other information for each of the 56 judicial districts.

Under the judicial amendment, counties without district judges would be allocated trial commissioners, but their judicial duties would be limited.

The state Supreme Court had recommended the creation of a minimum 123 district judgeships.

Rotundo could not be reached for comment.

Accompanied by corporation counsel Joseph Scarfrotti and two assistants, Hanna showed up at the chief's office. There, he said, deputy chief Edward Cahill told him Rotundo had directed him not to allow the mayor to examine the records without a court order.

"I ordered a locksmith myself to come and pick the lock," Hanna said. "He pushed a little thing in the lock and they arrested him and put him in jail."

Hanna then suspended Rotundo, Cahill, captains William Galle and Nicholas LaBella and Lt. Robert Mazza. The mayor had proclaimed himself public safety commissioner in 1974, not long after taking office.

It was not Hanna's first unconventional action. Upon becoming mayor, he removed the door to his office so he could be more accessible to citizens. He soon found the policy a nuisance and ordered the door rehung.

Hanna, 54, a Lebanese-American who became a wealthy businessman, was narrowly elected in a three-way race in 1973. He won re-election in 1975 on the Rainbow ticket, after numerous battles with the local establishment which brought him national attention.

He fired the entire public works department in a dispute with the Teamsters Union one day, then rehired them the next. When he thought the local banks were not providing enough money for local projects, he withdrew city accounts from the banks.

The local water board shut off the supply to his house after he stopped paying his bill to protest alleged incompetence at the agency.

plementation of central billing. Marshall will work in conjunction with Water System Supt. John Trotter in merging the billing operations of the two systems.

It was the consensus of the council that at the time of Trotter's retirement, which has been announced as Aug. 1, 1977, that Marshall would become superintendent of a joint natural gas and water and sewer system.

The city plans to negotiate with Trotter to hire him as a consultant for the system following his retirement.

It was also announced that two rate increases had been approved for Texas Gas, the city's supplier of natural gas. One of the increases, 12 cents per mcf, went into effect Dec. 1 and the other increase, 5 cents per mcf, will be effective Jan. 1, 1977.

Marshall said that the combined increases would amount to approximately $12 per year in additional charges for the average homeowner using natural gas.

Also approved was the sale of excess equipment by the Water and Sewer System.

Jefferson Board To Seek Court Order Today

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Jefferson County Board of Education will seek a court order today to force striking teachers back to work, a board spokesman said, despite a decision by Kentucky's governor that could expedite a contract settlement.

Gov. Julian Carroll released $4.1 million to the school system Thursday, part of which the board has been including in its contract proposals to the Jefferson County Teachers Association (JCTA).

The 4,500-member JCTA, in a statement, hailed Carroll's action, saying the funds "can go a long way toward solving monetary items still being negotiated."

June Lee, JCTA president, said, "I'm hoping there will be a settlement by the weekend." Ernest Grayson, superintendent of the nation's 18th largest school system, said he was "pleased" with the action, but declined to comment otherwise.

Joseph Kirkham, a federal mediator who had called the state funds "absolutely paramount" in ending the 11-day-old strike, said he did not expect the parties to settle before Sunday.

Negotiations were scheduled to resume at 2 p. m. today.

David Vogel, a spokesman for the school system, said that a board attorney, Preston Young, will be in Jefferson Circuit Court today seeking enforcement of an existing order, issued in 1970, prohibiting teachers from striking.

"He may possibly also ask for a new injunction," Vogel said. "It's just a matter of putting boots over your waterproof shoes."

Mrs. Lee, however, indicated that a back-to-work order would be ignored.

"That would not end the strike," she said. "The teachers will remain on the picket lines until an agreement has been reached."

In another legal matter, Jefferson Circuit Judge Charles Leibson set a hearing Monday on the school board's request for contempt citations against teachers who allegedly violated a court order limiting the number of pickets at each of the district's school facilities.

Leibson ordered Mrs. Lee to show cause why she should not be held in contempt.

Vogel said police threatened to arrest teachers at several schools Thursday morning after they refused to let non-striking employees cross their picket lines. No arrests were made and there were no reports of violence.

Referring to Carroll's action, Kirkham said that the federal judge handling the school board's suit against the state for release of the funds must still sign the agreement between the governor and the board before the money is actually released.

The suit involves a law, declared unconstitutional in August, prohibiting the use of state funds for the transportation of pupils beyond their nearest school. The law was aimed at Jefferson County's desegregation program.

Despite the law's invalidation, the state had said it did not have the funds.

The board had been anticipating $3 million in transportation funds. It had said that if it received them, it would use $1.7 million for teachers salaries and benefits.

In its statement, the JCTA, which represents all 5,860 teachers in the school system, said that the board could no longer use financial hardship as an excuse for not meeting the teachers' demands.

"For weeks, the superintendent and the school board's negotiators have been saying money to meet teachers' demands does not exist," the JCTA said. "Well, the money now exists. It has not been budgeted. It can be used to settle the money items still on the bargaining table."

The ostrich makes a sound that resembles a roar. From a distance it sounds like a lion.
